VAHEGURU JI KA KHALSA VAHEGURU JI KI FATEH

Vaheguru Ji Ka Khalsa, Vaheguru Ji ki Fateh

It was a pleasure to see so many staff, parents, community members, trustees and students attend our end of academic year prayer event on Saturday 22nd July 2023. On this auspicious occasion we were blessed with the darshan of Sri Guru Granth Sahib Ji (Sikh holy scriptures). In our Divan Hall we listened to Sukhmani Sahib prayers recited by Mr. T. Singh. We are very grateful to him for also explaining the meaning of the Sukhmani Sahib prayer including how it is divided into 24 ashtapadees (chapters). The sangat (congregation) listened to the blissful kirtan (hymns) performed by Bhai Maha Singh, Bhai Jasbir Singh and Bhai Manvir Singh Khalsa, who were accompanied by Bhai Gurpal Singh as the tabla player. Mrs. P. Kaur led on the presentations of medals to our student faith Leaders. They were awarded medals to congratulate them and to acknowledge their hard work throughout the academic year.

A huge thank you to our school catering staff led by Mrs. M. Bening, who prepared langar (blessed vegetarian meal) for everyone to enjoy.

As a school we felt blessed to have sat in sangat to thank Vaheguru for an amazing academic year in which we have achieved so many successes. We look forward and eagerly await the first phase of our school building expansion project to be completed in the autumn term. We would like to take this opportunity to thank you and our SEVA community for your continued support and wish you all a peaceful and happy summer break.
